Temple Of Justice

Mary C. Cass has commenced a suit for divorce in the court of common pleas of Knox county against Budd O. Cass. The plaintiff states they were married in this city on October 6, 1906, and that no children were born to them. She charged the plaintiff with gross neglect and alleges that he has failed to supply her with the necessities of life. The allegation is made that the defendant left home on July 7, 1910, saying he was going to Newark, O., to work, but in reality he went to Chicago and left the plaintiff without any means of support. She states that she furnished the defendant the sum of $600 and started him in business in Mt. Vernon, but on account of his laziness and dissipation he spent all the money. She alleges cruelty and states that on account of the action of the defendant she is extremely nervous and unable to work. She asks for a divorce and that she may be restored to her maiden name, Mary A. Baker. Lewis B. Houck is the attorney for the plaintiff.

REQUEST

Made For Another Common Pleas Judge

In The Knox-Licking-Delaware Sub-Division

Newark, O., Sept. 26.—The judges of the sixth judicial district met here Saturday. Measures were discussed for relieving the congestion in the Licking county courts, which now contain upward of 500 civil cases. The judges face the prospect of a vast number of criminal actions, growing out of the riot and lynching of last July.

Last October an adjustment of the times of holding court was agreed upon, but the Newark conditions have since grown so bad that the judges will make plans now for the rest of the judicial year which ends the middle of next month and also tentative arrangements for all the ensuing year. The subdistrict to which Licking, Knox and Delaware counties belong, has grown so populous that two judges are no longer able to keep abreast of the docket and the legislature will likely be appealed to for relief, asking that another judge be assigned.

Mail Boxes

The P. O. Dept. has issued a request that all persons receiving mail should provide themselves with a suitable mail box.

We are reliably informed that if the request is not generally complied with that an order will be sent out that mail must not be delivered unless there are proper boxes put up to receive it. We have boxes in stock, both safe and convenient, that will hold your mail and that have been approved by the Department.

CANE RUSH

Won By Kenyon Freshmen
By A Clever Play

In the cane rush at Gambier Saturday afternoon the Freshmen literally "put it over" the Sophomores. When the two classes lined up, the Freshmen were massed on their line, while the Sophomores extended their membership the full length of their line. When the signal was sounded each side rushed forward, the cane being in the hands of Captain Anderson, who occupied a position in the rear of the Freshmen. Just as the two classes were close together, Captain Anderson turned a neat trick by hurling the cane into the air over the heads of the Sophomores, it landing a short distance inside of the line of the Sophomores. Before the on-speeding Sophomores had realized the clever play and reversed themselves, the Freshmen had secured possession of the cane and carried it across the line of the Sophomores. The transaction lasted but a few seconds, and was all over before the spectators realized what had been done. It was the first time such a play had been attempted at Kenyon.

BABY

Run Down By A Careless
Bicycle Rider

Joseph, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCormick, sustained a very unfortunate injury on Friday afternoon on the public square when a boy approached rapidly on a bicycle. The boy was coasting and was evidently not paying very close attention to objects in front of him for he ran directly into the baby buggy. The child was thrown from the buggy and the boy on the bicycle pitched head foremost over the handbars of his machine. Baby, baby buggy, bicycle and boy were all piled in a heap and when things were finally straightened out, it was discovered that the infant received a nasty gash over the left eye. The wound bled profusely for some time, but was stopped by Dr. James F. Lee, who dressed the wound.
